Join us at the gorgeous Karma Kinglake for a full immersion in your writing. Whether your specialty is fiction (do you write short stories? or have a novel in the works?) or nonfiction (perhaps you want to write a memoir, a family or community history, a self-help or business book), and learn from a series of workshops that will feature theory and practice (yes, there'll be writing!).

You will be given valuable tools to unlock your writing and bring it to a publishable standard, as well as learn about the publishing industry. All meals and accommodation included. See website for full details.
